Hi Member

Whether you're staying at home and shopping online or driving out to get essentials, we've got you covered.

Multiply online shop

Get your essentials and get rewarded with cashbacks or discounts from the Multiply online shop. For now, you can buy Makro and Loot.co.za vouchers but we are adding more products soon.

Don't forget you can also order your fresh fruit and veg from Netflorist and get your Multiply discount.

All other products are still available to purchase but will only be delivered after the lockdown.

Safe Dayz™

If you have to drive out to buy your essentials or for any other valid reason, you can still get your travelling Safe Dayz. If you're staying put at home, you will get non-travelling Safe Dayz.

As we continue to learn and adapt during these times, we will keep you informed if anything changes but in the meantime, keep calm and stay safe.

If you have any questions, please email or WhatsApp us.
